TO: VANCOUVER CITY COUNCIL

RE: The Shopping Centre in the Arbutus Village, doing business as the Arbutus Shopping Centre, 4255 Arbutus Street, Vancouver, B.C. [Legal Description: Lot 2 D.L.526 Plan 14750] ("The Property")

WHEREAS:

1. In 1995, the Vancouver City Plan stated "How the character of each neighbourhood develops will reflect the wishes of the people who live there."
2. In November 2005, the Arbutus Ridge/Kerrisdale/Shaugnessy (ARKS) Community Vision Plan was approved by City Council.
3. The ARKS Vision Plan approved a new "neighbourhood centre" for The Property, but the Vision Direction to provide additional housing at Arbutus Village was classified as "Not Approved (Uncertain)".
4. The Arbutus Ridge Concerned Citizens' Association (ARCCA) adopted the following formal Resolution on November 14, 2007:
"The Arbutus Ridge Concerned Citizens Association supports a commercial upgrade only, but NO residential development on the Property".

THEREFORE:

WE, the undersigned residents of Vancouver, B.C., do not support any residential development on the above-noted Property.
